"Preserving History and Enriching Communities of the Lower Richland Corridor"

January 2014 Issue ~ Page 4

The celebration continued Saturday, October 6th, 11:00 AM at the festival site on the spacious yard of Old Mount Moriah. The hosts were Jeffrey Lampkin and Janet Parker from WACH Fox 57. A wide array of artists (singers, dancers, instrumentalists, etc..) performed. Activities ran throughout the day, offering FREE admission and a great opportunity for local and out-of-state visitors to experience the rich culture of the Lower Richland Heritage Corridor. Santee-Wateree Regional Transit provided free shuttles from parking lots to the entertainment stage area. No matter the age or interest, there were activities for everyone! (Funded by Richland County Hospitality Tax Grant)

Lower Richland Veterans Day

The Lower Richland Veterans Formation Chapter # 2 hosted a Veterans Day Parade & Ceremony to honor Veterans from all branches of service on Saturday, November 9, 2013. The event began with a parade consisting of veterans, marching bands, color guards, JROTC, motorcycles and classic cars, floats, and community leaders. Guests were treated to a free lunch and a day of celebration at Hopkins Park. This year's special guest speaker was South Carolina Alumnus (Retired Major General) Abraham Turner. The Guest Greeter was (Retired, Colonel Chaplain) Clark McGriff. Stellar Award Nominated Gospel recording artist Lowell Pye (from the group Men of Standard) performed.
